PRAME

PRAME (Programme Régional d'Aide à la Mobilité Internationale Etudiante) is a grant from the Sud region awarded on the basis of social criteria. It cannot be combined with the ERASMUS+ grant. This grant is also valid outside the Erasmus+ programmes and is therefore open to a larger number of beneficiaries. This grant is awarded to students doing an internship or a semester of study abroad.

Method of payment

80% before arrival at the host establishment.

20% on departure from the host establishment (with proof of attendance).

AMI

The Minister for Culture has decided to extend the benefit of international mobility assistance (AMI) to all areas of higher cultural education (ESC) for grant-holders wishing to undertake higher education abroad as part of an exchange programme or international internships. This training or internship must be part of their course of study. Worth €400 a month, applications from students wishing to undertake international mobility will be examined by a panel of experts according to objective criteria.

Method of payment

80% before arrival at the host establishment.

20% on departure from the host establishment (with proof of attendance).
