

Library

The library is a place full of resources complementary to the studies. It is open to students, teachers and researchers.

The library at the ESADTPM provides documentation in different forms covering the world of art.

Library : a collection of 9500 works of which 4000 are monographs

In order to perfect their theoretical and practical knowledge and skills, the students of the ESADTPM have access to documentary works on :

- > art history (western and non-western);
- > contemporary art;
- > exhibition catalogues;
- > art disciplines (drawing, painting, engraving, photography, architecture, design);
- > cinema;
- > aesthetics.

The library also possesses encyclopedias, general and specialised dictionaries, a collection of 250 videos on the arts as well as subscriptions to 25 reviews.

Library : moving towards the digitalisation of the works

In order to facilitate documentary research, the library is currently setting up a digital catalogue. It is also part of the network alongside the Documentation Centre of the Villa Tamaris Art Centre and the multimedia library of the Conservatoire National à Rayonnement Régional.

Opening hours

Open from Monday to Friday : 1-5pm.
